TAX COMMISSION BILL IS PASSED

Governor Will Appoint Three of Ten Members of New State Body.

EQUAL RIGHTS BILL.

Measure, Which is Said to Have Gained Strength, Liable to Come up Today.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—The House Saturday by a vote of 81 to 11 passed House bill 483, with the Gregory amendment, providing for a tax commission of ten—four from the House, three from the Senate and three to be appointed at large by the Governor.

Those voting against the passage of the bill were: Clement of Pittsylvania; I. W. Daniel, of Middlesex; Green, of Danville; Gordon, of Louisa; Oliver, of Fairfax; Powell of Spottsylvania; Stearnes, of Roanoke county; Stubbs, of Gloucester; Toney, of Richmond city; Walton, of Hanover, and Speaker Cox, of Richmond City.

An effort will be made to bring the equal suffrage bill up for a vote in the house today.

At the last session this measure received thirteen votes. Its advocates are this session claiming for it between fifteen and twenty votes.

LAST WEEK'S STORM

Does Great Damage in the Shenandoah Valley

Winchester, Va., March 9.—Belated reports received from every section of Frederick county and the adjoining portion of Shenandoah, Clarke, Berkeley and Jefferson counties tell of frightful havoc wrought by the hurricane of the early part of the week, and they also show that the first meagre reports, placing the property damage at about $100,000, were by no means exaggerated. The storm came from the west and hit the country within a radius of twenty miles from Winchester without a moment's warning, and for more than eighteen hours the velocity of the wind was between seventy and seventy-five miles an hour. Comparatively few buildings escaped without suffering some damage. The wire service was put out of commission, rendering it well-nigh impossible to communicate with people at a distance, and the electric light and power service was very irregular. The storm was the most disastrous of which there is any record in the Shenandoah Valley.

The zero weather, it now develops, killed a milion of peach tree buds in the West Virginia border counties principally those planted in low places, but it is stated that the upland orchards escaped serious injury.

The killing of those in the lowlands, however, will be a severe loss to farmers and others who have money thus invested. A great many of the peach trees in Frederick county have likewise been damaged, but the peach crop here is of secondary consideration, the apple being the chief product, and those orchards were not injured.

MINING REGION IS QUIET.

Congressional Investigating Committee Leaves For Chicago.

Houghton, Mich., March 9.—Quiet prevailed in the copper mining region yesterday, after the departure last night of the congressional investigating committee for Chicago. The committee will resume its hearings in Chicago on Monday. Members of the Michigan National Guard who served in the strike field will tell their side.

Attorneys for the strikers and the mining companies accompanied the committee to Chicago. The strikers expect to present [illegible] to support their contention [illegible] immigration laws were violated [illegible] mine owners. Charles H. Mo[illegible]ent of the Western Federation of Miners, is expected to tell [illegible] his deportation from the [illegible]eld last December.

ALLEGED NEW EVIDENCE.

Leo. M. Frank's Lawyers Say Important Facts Have Been Discovered.

Atlanta, Ga., March 9.—Evidence was made public here yesterday which attorneys for Leo M. Frank, sentenced to be hanged April 17 for the murder here of Mary Phagan, a factory girl, in April of last year, claim has placed the case in an entirely new light.

Frank's lawyers asserted that they are in possession of proof that the mysterious "murder notes" which figured so prominently in the trial of the factory superintendent were written in the basement of the factory, where they were found near the body of the murdered girl, and not in Frank's office, as claimed by the prosecution.

James Conley, colored sweeper at factory and chief witness against Frank, testified that he wrote the notes at the instance of the convicted man, and at his dictation. Conley said on the witness stand that Frank took an order pad from the desk, and handing it to the colored man, told him to write the notes thereon. This, Conley testified, he did.

It now is claimed by the defense that examination of the "murder notes" shows that they were written on an order blank which had been used nearly four years before the murder, by a former master mechanic at the pencil factory, who left that institution in 1912. The signature of this man, H. F. Becker, it is asserted, appears in carbon tracery on the paper, together with the almost obliterated record of the order's serial number.

Frank's lawyers say they have traced this order and identified it. In support of their contention that the notes were written in the factory basement they declared that Becker's office was on a different floor from Frank's and was cleaned out when he left the factory, and all papers were taken to the basement.

It would be highly unlikely, they asserted, that Frank would have had an oil-soaked and discarded order pad on his desk.

Another point which it was claimed supported this theory was that that the order blanks in use at the factory at the time of the murder bore the date line "191—" while that on which the murder notes were written was dated "190—."

New York, March 9.—William J. Burns returned to New York today, saying that he had several ends of the case of Leo Frank to develop here.

"I am not at liberty to say what I have found out," said Mr. Burns.

"I shall work in New York for a couple of days. There are several important phases of this unusual case to be developed here. When I return to Atlanta I shall have something to say."

INJUNCTION CASE ARGUED.

Manassas Bond Issue Will be Decided by Judge Barley on the 16th Instant.

The Corporaiton Court, Judge Barley, was occupied today in hearing arguments in the case of J. A. Morgan, vs. the Town Council of Manassas et al. The plaintiff is endeavoring to restrain the defendants from issuing $75,000 bonds for the purpose of installing an electric light plant, water works and sewerage, and to prevent the sale of said bonds to the Hanchett Bond Company of Chicago.

The case was removed from the Circuit Court of Prince William to the Corporation Court of Alexandria, Judge Thornton being interested in the case.

After hearing arguments in the case, Judge Barley continued it until the 16th instant, when, he announced, he would deliver a decree. Thomas H. Lyon, of Prince William, and C. E. Nicol, of this city, represent the defendants in the case, Bryan Gordon, of Manassas, plaintiff, and Mr. Lyon the bond company.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Hugh Strider, charged with larceny, will be called tomorrow.

DISASTROUS FIRE IN A CLUB HOUSE

LEAP FROM WINDOWS.

Flames From Wrecked Building Spread to Adjoining Property—Forty-Five Persons Missing.

St. Louis, March 9.—With forty-five persons unaccounted for, three known to be dead and a score injured, fire that destroyed the seven-story building of the Missouri Athletic Club in the Boatman's Bank building, was sweeping to adjoining buildings this morning and any exact estimate of the number of dead was out of question.

Prominent business men and professional men, trapped in their beds by a sudden burst of flame that followed a deafening explosion, groped their way to windows and hurled themselves to the pavement.

Two mangled bodies were picked up, a third man was known to have perished in his room, but with thirty streams of hose playing on the ruins, firemen, re-enforced by scores of policemen, were unable to get within forty yards of the great pile of white hot debris that marked the spot where the athletic club and bank once stood.

The flames shot through the seven-story building with amazing rapidity and only guests living on the lower floors escaped. Those on the upper floors rushedd panic-stricken to the windows, shot appealing glances at the little knots of horrified watchers far below, and leaped.

Some of the jumpers crawled, badly injured, to the street and were hurried away in ambulances. Groans of others were heard for scarcely a minute, when a succession of deafening crashes drowned out their cries.

The heavy roof, crumbling under the attack of flames, collapsed at 2:45 a. m., and fresh crashes announced that one floor after another had given way, a portion of the sidewalls tumbled down upon the great pile of brick and stone.

Following two distinct explosions in the bank, flames burst forth simultaneously in several floors, gaining headway in the large dining room on the third floor, which was deserted at that time.

Scores of terrified men rushed to the windows, calling for help, but they were forced back into the flame-blistered corridors groping blindly for air and life.

With descent cut off on the Fourth street escapes, many jumped to the roof of the St. Louis Seed Company on the west, sustaining injuries. Others hastily constructed a life line of bed clothing and twenty escaped by that manner.

The east wall of the building, which included the bank on the lower floor, fell in, burying the vaults of the Boatman's Bank, which, according to a statement of the bank officials today, contained $1,349,449 in currency and $27,464 in specie.

Assitant Fire Chief Rucker said he thought the explosions in the bank were caused by safe blowers.

BODY OF VERGARA QUIETLY REMOVED

Taken From Hidalgo Cemetery During Morning Hours.

TEXAS MUST ANSWER.

President Will Ask Governor Colquitt For Explanation of Rangers' Invasion of Mexico.

Laredo, Tex., March 9.—A troop of Texas Rangers, led by Captain J. J. Saunders, made a dash across the international border into Mexico late Saturday night, disinterred the body of Clementa Vergara, the Texas ranchman whose fate for weeks had been the subject of insistent inquiry and conflicting answer, and then galloped back again with the mutilated corpse to Texas soil.

The American had been mutilated and tortured after he was seized by the Mexican federals. He was shot twice through the head and once through the neck, his skull was crushed as by a blow from a rifle butt, and the charred fingers of the left hand indicated barbarous cruelty.

The presence of United States Consul Garrett at a locality convenient for receiving the body of the murdered ranchman has started speculation as to how far he was prepared for the invasion.

Feeling here is intense. The recovery of the body was officially reported to Governor Colquitt in a terse telegram.

The Rangers stand ready to repeat this performance in the event of another killing of an American near the line. Reprimands from Washington will not be heeded. Nothing short of the thorough patrol by United States troops of the entire border will prevent these Rangers from taking the law into their hands in the future.

Washington, March 9.—The Texas authorities must assume responsibility for Saturday night's sensational raid into Mexican territory by armed rangers. Unless Governor Colquitt volunteers an immediate and satisfactory report, President Wilson will personally ask for it by wire. He made this plain to callers today.

The object of the raid, the recovery of the body of Clemento Vergara, which had been buried at Hidalgo, Mexico, after he was tortured and slain by Mexican federals, will not be considered by the administration. That was merely the culmination of a circumstance that may prove decidedly dangerous. If Texan rangers carrying arms invaded Mexico in direct opposition to the warnings of the National government it may be necessary for the National Government not only officially to disavow this act, but also sharply to rebuke those who permitted it.

There will be no hasty action by President Wilson. He made it plain today that a full and complete inquiry has already been instituted and that until it ends no statement will be forthcoming from either himself or from Secretary of State Bryan that will deal with the merits of this new complication.

The President, with more than usual vigor, denied that this government had any advance information concerning the raid. Reports that Consul Garret twas cognizant of the plan were not credited by the President.

Every effort has been made by the administration, the President told his callers, to prevent any invasion of any kind of Mexico by armed Americans. The administration had taken up the Vergara case with the Huerta government, having been slain by federals.

TABLET TO LATE DR. HOGE.

Former Alexandrian Delivers Address at Unveiling.

Richmond, March 9.—Tributes to a man who dedicated his life's work to Christ and humanity were paid yesterday afternoon when a tablet in memory of the late Rev. Moses D. Hoge was unveiled in the Church of the Covenant, by his grandson, William Aylett Hoge.

Prominent speakers, some of whom were engaged in this work during the life of Dr. Hoge, and who were connected with him, made short addresses on the life's work of this grand Christian man, who did much for the cause for which he labored.

Short addresses, telling of the organization of the Church of the Church of Covenant forty years ago in the old John Minor Botts' house on West Franklin street, were delivered.

Dr. Hoge was a man who realized that the work of the church could best be accomplished through the work of the laymen, and to this end he labored, doing much work in this direction outside of his work in the church. He was a friend of every man whom he met on the street, sympathetic, kind and generous, he labored for the people of the city.

Among those who spoke of the history of the man, and the church of which he was pastor, were Rev. Dr. Russell Cecil, Rev. Dr. J. Calvin Stewart, and the Rev. Dr. James Power Smith, Tazewell Fizgerald and R. H. Gilman.

Rev. Dr. J. Calvin Stewart, a native of Alexandria, who succeeded Dr. Hoge as pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church, dwelt at length on the work which Dr. Hoge accomplished, and spoke in feeling terms of the man himself.

A large congregation was present at the unveiling, which testified to the high worth in which he was held by the people of the city who knew him during his life.

In accordance with the laws of the State of Virginia, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder at Alexandria, Virginia, March 31, 1914, at 10 o'clock, A. M., one car load of rail, consigned to Piedmont Construction Company, for freight, storage and other charges. Terms, cash.

RED LIGHT BILL SPECIAL ORDER

Decided Saturday to Take Up Measure For Consideration Today.

VOTE IS EXPECTED.

Bill Championed by Number of Lobbyists—Been Cause of Discussion Between Legislature and Others.

Richmond, March 9.—The Saunders anti-vice bill was the special order in the Senate for today.

This was accomplished Saturday after one of the hottest fights witnessed on the floor of that body.

Senator Mapp made a motion to make the bill the special order, and the question was stated. No objection being made, it was submitted and agreed to. There was a roll call on the proposition, and it had begun when several senators questioned the procedure.

Senators Hart, Lesner, Cannon, Featherston and others insisted that they had not heard the proposition and were under the impression that the question was on suspending the rules. They insisted that they had not heard the presiding officer ask if there was objection, or they would have entered objection.

Senator Saunders and others raised the point that the protest came too late, as the roll call was pending and one member of the Senate had been recorded.

The point of order was sustained, and the roll call was then on the proposition to take up the bill as the special order. Th[illegible] the bill the special o[illegible] to by the following

Noes—Senators Featherston, Garrett, Gravatt, Hart, Lesner, Montague, Parr, Rinehart and Smith—10.

Senator Cannon had voted No, but changed to Aye. He then made a motion to reconsider the vote by which the motion was adopted.

Senator Cannon then moved to reconsider, which was followed by a motion by Senator Featherston to pass by. This latter motion was defeated by the following vote.

Yeas—Senators Brown, Cannon, Featherston, Harman, Hart, Hobbs, Lesner, Paul, Rinehart, Rison and Thornton—11.

Noes—Senators Blanks, Catron, Crockett, Early, Edmondson, Gayle, Holt, Mapp, Moncure, Parr, Paxton, Royall, Saunders, Sowder, Tavenner, Walker and West—17.

RIVER NOTES.

The northwest winds of the past week have blown nearly all the ice in the river from the Virginia to the Maryland side.

The steamer Newport News, which was damaged by a collision with the steamer Northumberland last Monday night, passed down the river today on her way to Newport News, where she will receive repairs. The Northumberland reached Baltimore several days ago. She will be repaired at that city.

The steamers Wakefield and Trenton came down today from Washington for the purpose of taking on freight for river landings.

Dynamite may have to be used to break up the ice packs in the Potomac near Washington. River men say the jam is the worst in forty years. At Three Sisters' Island the ice has formed a gorge half a mile wide, and from twenty to fifty feet deep.

It is feared warm weather may set in and cause the blockade to break up suddenly, threatening tremendous damage.

FREAK OF WAYWARD BOY

Sells New Suit of Clothes, Belonging to His Father, to a Saloonkeeper

There are fathers, whose locks have been whitened by the snows of many winters who are inclined to make exclamations similar to that of King Lear. Thoughtless young ones are ever adding to the work of bleaching the coarse hirsute appendages of parents and piling up remorse which is sure to keep them thinking in years to come, when graves shall shut out from parents acts of cruel offspring.

A scene in the Police Court this morning will long be remembered by those who witnessed it. A fond father, whose appearance and deportment was proof conclusive that he was setting a proper example to those under his protection, appeared at the bar accompanied by his fifteen-year-old son who, it was alleged, had taken a new suit of clothes belonging to his father, costing $22, and sold them to a saloonkeeper in the northeastern section of the city for $5.

Justice Caton, after hearing the facts in the case, directed an officer to proceed to the saloon and order the proprietor to restore the suit by tomorrow. Should he fail to do so a warrant for purchasing stolen porperty will be issued. The owner of the clothes stated that he was ready to pay the $5 expended by the saloonkeeper. Justice Caton told him that was optionable with him.

FIRE LAST NIGHT.

Rev. Dr. Register And Mr. L. N. Duffey Rescue Woman.

The Rev. E. V. Register, D. D., presiding elder of the Washington District of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, and former pastor of the Mt. Vernon Place Church, Washington, and his son-in-law, Louis N. Duffey, a well-known young attorney, of this city, played the part of firemen last night, when the residence occupied by Mrs. Susan Groves and Mrs. Annie S. Pierpont, at 507 Duke street, opposite the Duffey residence, caught on fire.

Mrs. Groves, who occupied a front room on the second floor of her house, was asleep at the time the fire broke out. She awoke to find her room filled with smoke. Almost suffocated she found her way across the room and opening the front window screamed for help. Her cries brought Dr. Register and Mr. Duffey to the scene. They told her to get out of the window and drop and they would catch her. The woman had presence of mind to do as directed, and escaped uninjured.

The houses caught on fire shortly after eleven o'clock. They were frame structures and were damaged to the extent of $250. Mrs. Mary Egan, of Washington, is the owner of the property.

GET SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Keeper of Bagnio and Inmates Together with Visitors Before Police Court

Sergeant Scott and Officer Nicholson last night made a descent upon a newly-established resort conducted by Mary Timbers, colored, a native of this city, but until a week ago a resident of Philadelphia. The Timbers woman and two other colored females named Blondel Wilson and Pearl Porter, inmates of the place, and half a dozen colored men, visitors, were escorted to the station house. When the case was called this morning Pearl Porter and four of the males, who had left collateral, could not be found and forfeited their deposits. Mary Timbers and Blondel Wilson, with two colored men were placed in the box. The evidence of the officers was to the effect that they were carrying out orders not to allow women in from other cities to alight in Alexandria, and that the parties arraigned had acted defiantly. It was also shown that they are not employed at any occupation, nor are they seeking work.

Justice Caton sentenced the two women to six months' confinement under the vagrant act. The two men were dismissed.

PORTRAIT GIVEN TO STATE.

Governor Stuart Accepts it, and Commends Service of General Early.

Richmond, Va., March 9—An Elder portrait of Jubal A. Earley, the famous Confederate general, painted by that distinguished Virginia artist in the late 70's, has been accepted by Governor Stuart on behalf of the State from Miss Ruth H. Early and Miss M. J. Early. The canvas will be turned over to the State Library Board by the Governor at the next meeting, and will be hung in a conspicious place in the gallery at the library. It is regarded as a notable acquisition, because of the historical associations.

The portrait is pronounced by those who knew General Early to be a good likeness, although the coloring is not accurate. It was painted by Elder about 1878, when General Early was about sixty years old, General Earley sitting for the portrait. The misses Early are nieces of the famous war hero and the portrait has been in the possession of the Early family since it was painted.

In accepting the gift Governor Stuart paid tribute to the signal services General Early rendered Virginia "It is sincerely hoped," he wrote, "that others will follow your example of love and memory, so that the library may have an extensive collection of portraits of Virginia's soldiers and statesmen and publicists, as a visible demonstration that their deeds are enshrined in the hearts of the people forever.

PATIENT COMMITS SUICIDE.

Escapes From Eastern State Aslyum And Drinks Poison.

Williamsburg, Va., March 9.— The dead body of Miss Emily J. Clarke of Norfolk, a suicidal patient at the Eastern State Hospital, was found in the woods near Toano, Saturday afternoon by a party of searchers who had been on her trail since her escape from the institution here Friday morning. Miss Clarke was a member of a wealthy Norfolk family, and had been here about a year.

It is reported that Miss Clarke went to Toano, secured poison, started back toward Williammsburg, and when safe away from everybody took the fatal draught.

THE CANNON INCIDENT.

Preacher Had Been Expelled From House on Another Occasion.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—Following the publication of the request from Judge Gregory that the Rev James Cannon be expelled from the hall of the House, Dr. Cannon visited the lobby Saturday and sent for Judge Gregory to join him on the outside.

Judge Gregory accepted the invitation, and the two men were engaged in a heated passage of words.

Dr. Cannon demanded if the request of Judge Gregory to have the hall cleared of visitors was directed at him.

Judge Gregory replied that his request was directed specically at him

"I saw you and another preacher moving under the gallery, and thought that was no place for you. I therefore, asked the chair to have the hall cleared."

Colonel John M. Johnson, sergeant-at-arms in the House, said that he had been approached by Dr. Cannon and asked who had instructed him to put him (Cannon) off the floor .

Colonel Johnson said that he had been instructed simply to clear the house, which he proceeded to do.

Colonel Johnson said that he had at the session of 1912, 'put Dr. Cannon out of the hall of the House." That when he ordered Dr. Cannon out Dr. Canno ninformed him that he was attending the session in the capacity of representative of a newspaper.

Colonel Johnson had thereupon told him to take his lead pencil and move to a reporter's table. This the Rev. Cannon refused to do. Colonel Johnson said that when he invited Dr. Cannon from the floor in 1912 the "reverend gentleman" was creating disorder by conversing with members at their streets.

On Saturday there was no minister present and the house was reduced to calling upon one of its members for prayer.

SHIP BROKE IN TWO.

Men From Charlemagne Tower Saw Her Break in Middle Before Sinking.

Norfolk, Va., March 9.—Seventeen members of the crew of the steamer Charlamagne Tower, Jr., which sank off Baregat, N. J., Friday afternoon, were landed here Saturday by the steamer Bayport. The men were pickd up off the New Jersey coast Friday afternoon five hours after they left their sinking steamer in a life boat. Four other members of the crew, which put off in another life boat, were picked up by life savers. All the crew was saved.

Captain H. C. Simmons, declared that the Tower began leaking Friday morning, and in less than two hours she was in a sinking condition, and began to break in half. "When we took to the boats," said Captain Simmons, "the Tower was breaking in two. Water was pouring in the ship from bow to stern, and we had no chance to remain afloat. The water poured in the ship so rapidly we did not have time to save any of our belongings, and were forced to take to the boats.

"We were tossed around in high seas, with a blinding snow, for seven hours. We could hear our steamer creaking and pitching under the lashing she was getting from the high seas, and the weight of the water in her hold. We saw her shoot up at each end, and down in the middle. Then we knew she had broken in two."

ATTORNEY ATTACKED.

Policeman Sweet Strikes Lawyer Lovenstein in Richmond.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—Benjamin J. Lovenstein, attorney at law, was felled yesterday by a stiff uppercut delivered by Patrolman H. F. Sweet, a few moments after a rather heated hearing in police court in which A. Stein, a merchant tailor, was fined $10 for assaulting his step-son .

In the course of the trial, the attorney took occasion to tell Sweet that he was no better than some of the other riffraff in the case.

When the case was concluded Sweet followed Lovenstein out of the court room and demanded an apology as the two approached the elevator entrances.

"I most assuredly will not apologize to you ——————," Lovenstein replied, according to witnesses standing nearby.

With that, Sweet, quick as a flash, landed on the atterney's jaw, knocking him heavy to the floor.

Lovenstein, who is rather diminutive, weighing hardly 120 pounds, realizing discretion was the better part of valor, quickly got himself together and started back toward the door with the patrolman in hot pursuit.

Bystanders brought the mill to a close, and Sweet will be brought before police court today to answer the charge of assault.

VOLUNTARY IDLENESS.

The authorities of Sacramento, California, and vicinity are greatly excited by the formation of a large army of unemployed men, and the governor of the state is endeavoring to have this horde dispersed or kept on the move.

While there may at times be grounds for the forming of such gatherings, according to advices from California, there are at present urgent demands from agriculturists for labor, and there is every reason to believe that were the majority of this band of itinerants to look for work they would have no great trouble in finding it.

The forming of armies of nomads is a serious menace to any community, and should the governor of California succeed in getting this horde out of his bailiwick they will surely alight some where else.

The marching of several thousand irresponsible men through sparsely settled districts is sure to be accompanied with acts of outlawry, as the members of the gang have but one way to live, and that by foraging.

If the formation of armies of idle men is to become general, scenes in connection with the early history of the world may be reproduced, when tillers of the soil were compelled to stand guard over their fields.

IS POVERTY CAUSE OF MOST TROUBLES ?

Poverty was ascribed as the cause for most of the world's troubles by Dr. Algernon Crapsey, an ex-Episcopal minister, of Syracuse, in an address before the Socialist Literary Society, in Philadelphia yesterday afternoon. From the time a human being comes into the world until he leaves he said, its principal tribulations are brought about through poverty.

"The cause of practically all juvenile delinquency," he said, "is poverty Laborers are slaves and industry is slavery This has always been so, is now and always will be," according to the doctor.

Dr. Crapsey's deductions are controverted by some who are by no means convinced that poverty is the source of most human troubles. Men who have risen from the lowest rungs of the ladder into prominence and affluence, after having experienced the inconveniences incident to poverty and the satiety of riches, have often said that a handful with contentment is greater than riches, as the latter bring troubles of their own.

The great mass of the human race is necessarily compelled to toil and spin for an existence, and could all such adopt from the soul the injunction, always in order, "Be content with such things as ye have"—the burdens incident to poverty would become much lighter.

PLAINTIFF GETS $15,000.

She Had Sued for $60,000 For Loss of Husband.

Roanoke, Va., March 9.—A jury in the Federal Court brought in a verdict awarding $15,000 to the plaintiff in the suit of Mrs. Louella Gillespie administratrix, against the Norfolk and Western Railway. She sued for $60,000 under the employers' liability act, because of the death of her husband, A. F. Gillespie, an engineer killed in a wreck at Cleveland, Russell county, June 8, 1913. The jury was out two hours.

After the reading of the verdict and the usual motions were heard, the court decided that the defendant be allowed one week in which to file a motion to set aside the verdict and ask for a new trial. The plaintiff is allowed one week to file answers after the defendant's motion is filed. It was said there was no difference of opinion on the verdict, except as to the amount of damages. Discussion on that point, it is said, ranged from $15,000 to $30,000.

The verdict apportions the award one-half to the widow and one-half to be divided equally among four children. The children range in age from two to fourteen years, the eldest being a boy.

WOMAN KILLS HERSELF.

Driven to Suicide by Brooding Over Ill-Health.

Asheville, N. C., March 9.— Mrs Arthur Rufty, who resides near Salisbury, committed suicide here yesterday at the home of Mrs. J. F. Keener, a relative, shooting herself twice just below the heart. Mrs. Rufty was in poor health and had been brooding over her condition ever since her arrival here three weeks ago. Attracted by the shots her relatives found the woman stretched on the floor, the weapon still clutched in her hand. She died a few hours later. Slight cuts on her throat and an open razor in the room gave rise to the belief that she first attempted to cut her throat and when her nerve failed, secured the revolver with which she hot herself. She is survived by her husband and four children.

TWO GREAT QUESTIONS.

Monroe Doctrine and Mexico Will be Discussed.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 9.—The Mexican situation and the present status of the Monroe doctrine will be discussed at a national conference on foreign relations of the United States, under the auspices of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, to be held here April 3 and 4. Delegates have been appointed by governors of nearly all the States, and delegations from leading trade and industrial organizations throughout the country are expected to attend. The conference has been divided into six sessions, and addresses will be delivered by naval officers, scientists, members of Congress and men prominent in the business world.

Although the program has not been completed, those who have already accepetd invitations to deliver addresses include Rear-Admiral F. E Chadwick, U. S. N.; Rear-Admiral C M. Chester, U. S. N.; and Rear-Admiral Richard Wainwright, U. S. N. Representative James L.Slayden, Texas; W. Morgan Shuster, Dr. L. S. Rowe, professor of political science University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Albert Busnell Hart, professor of government, Harvard; Dr. Simon Patten professor of political economy, University of Pennsylvania; Dr. E. C Stowell, professor of international law, Columbia University, and A Maurice Law, correspondent of the London Morning Post, Washington.

FAVOR SOCIAL CENTRES.

Miss Margaret Wilson Interests Herself in Improving Schools.

Washington, March 9.—Miss Margaret Wilson is interesting herself in the efforts of the "Parents League" to improve the condition of the schools of Washington.

Miss Wilson advocates the forming of social centres in each schoolhouse. One of the chief works of the league at present is to obtain reduction in the number of children given to each teacher to instruct. They contend that with the present system of assigning a teacher to from fifty to sixty children she fails to get into personal sympathy with her pupils, and is unable to give them any individaul attention.

Look for the TRIANGLE

It is the trademark of the latest model of the Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater.

It is the sign of the greatest improvements ever made in oil heating devices.

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

The Perfection Heater, as now made, gives more heat, holds more oil, is better made and works better than any other heater on the market.

It has a wide, shallow oil font, which allows the oil to pass readily up the wick and insures reliable, unchanging flame and heat, whether the font is full or nearly empty.

The Perfection is smokeless, because the patent locking flame-spreader prevents the wick being turned up high enough to smoke. It is easy to re-wick, because the carrier and wick are combined—just turn out the old and slip in the new.

Indicator tells how much oil is in the font. Filler plug is pushed in like a cork—no screw, no thread to wear. Attractive latticed window frame.

The Perfection Heater is finished in vitreous turquoise-blue enamel or plain steel drums; looks well, lasts well, easy to carry wherever wanted.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The body of an unidentified man, who evidently had perished in the blizzard of last Sunday night, was found at the bottom of a snow drift near Philadelphia yesterday by boys building a snow fort. The man was about 50 years old.

Balloting in the general elections for members of the Spanish chamber of deputies began yesterday throughout the kingdom. Ninety-eight candidates who had no opposition were declared elected last week under the provisions of the electoral law. There were 306 seats to be filled in the elections. Reports received showed that the government would have a solid majority, and that the Romanones party, a faction of liberals, had run second. It is claimed that the government will have from 250 to 260 out of the 404 seats in the new chamber in Madrid. Serious rioting occurred at various places, and several persons are said to have been killed and many wounded.

Frederick Townsend Martin, wealthy New Yorker, social worker and author, died yesterday at the Berkeley Hotel, in London, from angina pectoris.

Bert Shibley has just had indirect revenge on a school teacher in the rural district near Sentinel Butte, N. D. where he lives. His daughter recently trounced the teacher, and the court dismised a complaint that Shibley had abetted the girl in the assault Shibley fostered an aversion toward the teacher, Miss Bessie Bridges, and when the school board refused to remove her he withdrew his children from the school. Miss Bridges had the parent arrested and fned under the compulsory school attendance law This persuaded Shibley to have his children return to their studies. One of the older Shibley daughters, however, went back militant. She "licked" the teacher and was fined. Her father had promised her a new dress if she pounded the schoolma'am "good and hard." the teacher alleged, but the charge was not proved in court nor has the girl yet appeared in a new gown.

Premier Giolitti yesterday notified King Victor Emmanuel of Italy of the resignation of his Cabinet. A dispatch from Rome March 2 said that a Cabinet crisis was expected after the Government had obtained a vote approving the appropriation bill for the new colony of Libya, North Africa. Premier Giolitti, it was stated, considered that the making secure of this colony would be his crowning work and that he then desired to retire and leave the reins of government in the hands of another. The Libyan budget was passed by the Chamber of Deputies March 4 by a vote of 361 to 83. Last Saturday the Radicals in the Italian Parliament, who previously had voted with the majority, decided to join the opposition, which left the Government party in the minority in the Chamber.

The body of Charles Byron Bostwick, secretary and treasurer of the A. J.Watts Company, dealers in dental gold, in New York, who disappeared from his home in the Life Apartments, 19 West Thirty-first street, Sunday morning, January 4, was found yesterday in the woods a mile and a half from the village of Easthampton, Long Island. Miss Dorothy Green, a music teacher in the Easthampton High School, found the body, face down, in a clump of undergrowth as she was strolling with her pet dog.

Should Count Money in Church.

Boston, Mass., March 9.—"When a poor woman drops a dime—part of her hard earned wages—into the contribution plate, she not only has a right to ask what becomes of it, but the church has a right to demand that the utmost care be taken in the use of and accounting for, this sacred gift," says Bishop Lawrence, of the Episcopal diocese of Massachusetts, in the Churchman.

Treasurers of some churches have been in the habit of counting the money at home, but Bishop Lawrence wants it counted in the vestry of the churches, and the amount put down in a book, in the presence of at least one witness The book, he insists, must be open to inspection at all times.

WOMEN TO TRY MURDER CASE.

Request is Made by Counsel For Accused Murderess.

Chicago, Ill., March 9.—A jury of women to decide the fate of a woman accused of murder, was asked by Joseph R. Borres, attorney for Stella Czemerowski, twenty-two years old under indictment for killing her fiance Frank Coczynski, who jilted her for another woman. The case is to be called before Judge McDonald on Monday.

We Promise You Relief from All Stomach Troubles— Or Your Money Back

We honestly believe we have the best remedy in the world for indigestion and dyspepsia. We urge you to try it at our risk. If it doesn't relieve you—as we feel sure it will—we'll give back your money without a word. You know us—your family druggist. You know we wouldn't dare recommend anything we didn't know about, nor dare to break a promise. Therefore, when we recommend any remedy it is because we believe it to be better than any other to relieve the ailment for which it is made, and when we prove our faith in it and our sincerity toward you by promising to give back your money if it doesn't relieve you and in every way satisfy you, you have no possible excuse for doubt or hesitation.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets

are, we honestly believe, the best remedy made for Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all other Stomach Ills

We Know They're Good
Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, in addition to other ingredients, contain Pepsin and Bismuth, two great digestive aids used by the entire medical profession. They soothe the inflamed stomach, check the heartburn and distress, stimulate a healthy secretion of the gastric juice, aid in rapid and comfortable digestion of the food and help to quickly convert it into rich red blood, and thereby into flesh, bone and muscle. They relieve stomach distress promptly, and, used regularly for a short time, tend to restore the stomach to a comfortable, easy-acting, healthy state. They aid greatly to promote regular bowel action.

Delays Are Dangerous
Don't neglect indigestion, for it frequently leads to all sorts of ills and complications. The pain and discomfort is not the most unfortunate part. The fact that when the stomach is not acting right, the material needed to repair the wastes that are constantly taking place in the body is not being given to the blood either in the proper condition or fast enough is far more serious. Nothing will cause more trouble than an unhealthy stomach. The Blues, debility, lack of strength and energy, constipation, biliousness, headaches and scores of other serious ailments result from the failure of the stomach to properly do its work.

You Risk No Money
Our willingness to have you use Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets entirely at our risk proves our faith in them. We always sell them this way, and it is because we know that they have greatly benefited scores of sufferers to whom we have sold them. There's no red tape about our guarantee. It means just what it says. We'll ask you no questions. You needn't sign anything. Your word is enough for us. We know that when they help you you will consider it money well spent even if they had cost you ten times as much. If they don't help you, the money you paid for them is yours, and we want you to have it.

Sold only at the more than 7,000 Rexall Stores—the World's Greatest Drug Stores. In convenient boxes—three sizes: 25c, 50c, $1.00

WILL REBUT CLAIM.

Members of Virginia Debt Commission Will Answer West Virginia Committee.

Richmond, Va., March 9.—Although the Virginia debt commission refused to make answer to the offer of West Virginia to settle Virginia's claim of $7,182,507.46 for something more than $2,300,000, the members of the commission are not willing to let the statements made by Chairman Mason, of the West Virginia commission, go unchallenged. Mr. Mason intimated that Virginia failed to reply to West Virginia's counterclaim because of lack of grounds but members of the Virginia commission answer that Virginia will rebut the counterclaim at the proper time; that is to say, before the Supreme Court on April 13.

In an interview given out by the chairman of the West Virginia Debt Commission in the past day or two, it is claimed that West Virginia has in the last few months discovered that there are large credits and equitable setoffs to which it is entitled against any claim which Virginia may have, and that because of some of these claims West Virginia ought not to be expected to pay interest upon the balance of $2,300,000, at which its debt commission proposes it shall now compromise its liability to Virginia.

These statements are somewhat surprising to those in Virginia who are familiar with the history of the pending controversy, and of the suit with West Virginia.

It is understood here, and such is the view of those who are familiar with the litigation from its inception, that while the Virginia Debt Commission was constrained to reject the recent compromise offer tentatively proposed by the West Virginia Commission, for the reason that the Virginia Commission has no right or power to ignore, or to review the decision of the Supreme Court of the United States, twice iterated, the Virginia commission and counsel for the Commonwealth expect to be prepared to meet these contentions of West Virginia whenever they shall attempt to be asserted, in the Supreme Court of the United States. For these and other controlling considerations, the Virginia Commission prefers not to anticipate such complete response as it is advised can be made to these recent claims of West Virginia, or to engage in any trial of the case in the newspapers.

YOUNG MAN KILLED BY TRAIN

Fractured Skull Results in Death in Short While.

Manassas, Va., March 9.—A young man by the name of Howe, an employe of the signal corps of the Southern Railway, which has been operating here for the past several months, was killed near Catletts a few days ago. He was operating a steam drill when he was struck by No. 35, a fast southbound train. The train was stopped and the injured man taken to Catletts, then removed to Manassas. Although his body was cut but very little, he died from a fractured skull in a short while. The remains were taken to a local undertaking establishment, and later will be sent to his former home in Indianapolis.

POWER OF JURIES.

New Law Authroizes Them to Impose Life Sentences.

Richmond, March 9.—The Senate has passed a bill which makes a radical departure from the criminal procedure in the State, now obtaining. The bill is one of which Senator Tavener was the patron, and it amends section 3663 of the code.

Under the law as it stands at this time there is no option with juries in certain cases, but to return verdicts against persons charged with crime, and which means the infliction of the death penalty.

Under the terms of the amendment agreed to last night it is in the province of juries to return verdicts and to recomend life sentence or the death penalty.

The cases which carry the death penalty in Virginia are well known, embracing murder, attacks on women, breaking and entering in the night time and highway robbery.

The bill will now go to the house for concurrence, and will come up for consideration within the next day or so.

CIGARETTE COSTS 24 LIVES.

Miner Opens Lamp to Light it And Gas in Mine Explodes.

STOOD AT MIRROR TO DIE.

Tuberculosis Victim Shot Out His Brains in His Room.

Philadelphia, March 9.—Concluding that all hopes of recovery from tuberculosis, from which he had been suffering for a year and more, were hopeless, Eugene A. Dechler, 32 years, a single man, living with his mother at No. 5909 McCallum street Germantown, committed suicide yesterday morning. He stood before a mirror in his room and sent a bullet into his forehead, between the eyes. The revolver with which he committed the act was held close to his head and was bespattered with blood. Part of his brains were also scattered on the floor of his bedroom.

Policeman Graham, who was passing along McCallum street at the time, was called into the house and sent the unfortunate man to the Germantown Hospital, where he died less than two hours after being admitted.

COULDN'T STAND HAIRY FACE.

Unfortunate Woman, Made Ill by Grief, Seeks Death.

Trenton, N. J., March 9.—Grief over the fact that despite all she could do, a patch of dark hair continued to grow upon her upper lip and that some of her so-called friends heartlessly called her attention to her affliction, led to the attempt of Mrs. William A. Lindsay to end her life with poison last night. She is in St. Francis' Hospital, where her life is despaired of.

When the hair began to grow upon her face some months ago Mrs. Lindsay sought every means possible to eradicate it, but her efforts proved ineffective. To add to her misery she was twitted by acquaintances about her "moustache," and this so preyed upon her mind that she became ill. She was cared for by a nurse, but taking advantage of the nurse's absence, she managed to get some acid, and, going to a house under construction near her home, she drank it. The unfortunate woman was discovered unconscious some time later.

MAGNETS FAIL IN THROAT.

Altoona, Pa., March 9.—Living a week with a parlor tack in her left bronchial tube, Ruth Lockwood, aged 16 months, is gradually growing weaker at the Altoona Hospital, and may die any minute. The head of the tack is downward, but is held in place by the point being imbedded in the tissues. To cut into the tube would cause death.

Powerful electric magnets have been used but without success. Food is taken through a tube, and air supplied to the lungs by the same means.
